ABOUT Vanessa

I'm Vanessa, a passionate content creator and travel enthusiast from Germany with a background as a trained chef. Having experienced the hospitality world from behind the scenes, I understand what it takes to create outstanding guest experiences.

What makes work while travelling so special is capturing the unique rhythm and history of every place and turning moments into stories worth telling.

ABOUT ME

info@vanymentravels.com

A photograph of two women riding camels on a beach. Both women are wearing traditional blue head coverings and robes. The camels are decorated with colorful, patterned saddle blankets. The background shows the ocean and a clear sky.

I have been traveling the world together with my husband for a long time. I'm open minded and have an eye for detail and for what people like.

Coming from two different cultures is a great strength, as it allows us to bring fresh perspectives that others might not consider. I combine creativity, strong ideas, and a passion for delivering the best to every customer.

Always eager to grow, I enjoy stepping outside my comfort zone to keep learning and improving.

WHY ME?

about AYMEN

Aymen is also a professional chef trained in Germany, originally from Morocco, bringing a unique blend of cultures and perspectives to our work.

He plays a crucial role in my projects. He contributes to photography and videography, and perhaps most importantly, he is the one piloting the drones, capturing the breathtaking aerial shots that elevate our work.

Having him by my side gives me a sense of security while traveling as a woman, and his presence brings genuine joy, which naturally enhances the creativity and energy of our work.
